Dry Stack Collection provides you with several different manufactured stone styles from which to choose, making it possible to customize the interior or exterior of your home with a look that's yours alone.

Ledgestone Collection features the rough surface, jagged edges and rich color of real stone. Our Ledgestone stone veneer styles can take on completely different looks simply by the installation - either dry stacked or grouted.

Limestone Collection features nine styles of chiseled, square and rectangular stones that complement a variety of designs for interior and exterior stone veneer applications.

Terra Cut™ Collection is a ProVia exclusive that embodies key characteristics of weatherworn, coarse-grained, and coral style stones. This one-of-a-kind profile creates a striking appearance through a sensational amount of texture within each stone, as well as multiple dimensions from stone to stone.
